Committee Member of Regional Development Australia Far North – Application form	7

Overview

Regional Development Australia (RDA) Far North is a partnership between the Australian, State and Local Governments to support the economic growth and development of the Far North region of SA. RDA Far North is a not-for-profit incorporated Association governed by a volunteer Committee made up of key leaders and industry experts across the Far North region. Our committee and staff aim to build partnerships between governments, regional development organisations, local businesses, community groups and key regional stakeholders to provide strategic and targeted responses to economic opportunities (and challenges) across the region.

RDA Far North covers a vast region of 799,850 square kilometres which takes in the sparsely settled country of the north of South Australia. It accounts for 80% of the State's land mass and has a population of approximately 26,602 people. The region is roughly defined as the area from the Aboriginal Lands on the Western Australian border following a line east along the Eyre Highway incorporating the Gawler Ranges to Yunta and Cockburn in the east, and all areas northwards to the Queensland and Northern Territory borders.

Significant opportunities for economic growth in the region exist in the sectors of resources, tourism, transport, renewable energy, defence, services, food and arts. RDA Far North is committed to fostering this growth for the benefit of the Far North regional community.

RDA Far North is operationally based in Port Augusta and the Committee meets eight times per financial year. To enable effective participation of Committee Members, four of the meetings are held via a virtual platform to bring the Committee together, and four meetings are held in person in Port Augusta. There are also opportunities for face-to-face meetings on an annual basis either in Port Augusta or through regional visits.
